II NEW BUSINESS

Provisional Appointment of Full-time Police Officer David Munn – Chief Miksch was presented and requested the Board vote the provisional appointment of David Munn as a full time police officer. The Chief reviewed the hiring processes noting that Mr. Munn has always been considered but other candidates had academy training. The Chief would like to get Mr. Munn in the April police academy. Mr. Munn would complete the academy in August. The Chief noted the Sgt. Andrews intends to retire in December which will create an opening for a Sergeant, creating an opening for a full time officer. An assessment center was conducted earlier today for the sergeant's. There is funding for the position.

Mrs. FitzGerald-Kemmett noted Mr. Munn's background as a dispatcher and veteran. Chief Miksch noted that he has been a good dedicated employee.

MOTION by FitzGerald-Kemmett, second by Dyer to provisionally appoint David Munn as a full time police officer effective today. Voted 3 – 0

Green Community Designation Grant Items – Mr. McCue requested the Board table the matter. He thought the deadline for grant items was January 18th. He discovered that the January 18th deadline was for competitive grants. He will have the Board address the issue at the next meeting. The deadline for Hanson's grant is February 8th.
