Announcements

Hanson Middle School students are collecting slightly-worn clothing and shoes for children ages newborn to 12 years old to support Cradles to Crayons, which provides clothing to children living in homeless or low-income situations. They are also looking for new pajamas and socks. They are collecting through Thursday, April 6th and items can be dropped off at Hanson Middle School, St. Joseph the Worker Church and Boss Academy of Performing Arts.

Whitman & Hanson Dollars for Scholars will be opening the month of April with a meat raffle at Damien's Pub located at 279 Spring Street in Hanson on Saturday, April 8. The Meat raffle begins at 2PM. All proceeds from the event will benefit graduating high school seniors from Whitman and Hanson who are continuing on to college. For more information on this event and Dollars for Scholars, please contact Michael Ganshirt at 781-252-9683 or visit WhitmanAndHanson.DollarsforScholars.org.

John Russell Studio Salon & Day Spa at 587 Washington Street in Whitman will be hosting a Cut-A-Thon in support of Whitman & Hanson Dollars for Scholars 2017 fundraising drive. The event will be held on Sunday, April 9 from 10AM – 12PM with all proceeds to be donated to the scholarship fund. The Cut-A-Thon is for wet cuts only. Pricing for the event will be Women's Cuts $25, Men's Cuts $15 and Children's Cuts (under 10yrs) $15. Manicures $10 and Mini Facials $10 will also be available. Appointments can be made by calling 781-447-1100. Walk-ins will also be welcome. For more information, please visit www.WhitmanAndHanson.DollarsforScholars.org.
